IS YOURS FOR THE ASKING

Encantado is a resort that truly embodies the spirit and culture of Santa Fe and New Mexico. A seamless blend between indoor and outdoor spaces creates a natural flow that carries you throughout the resort. Harmonious, earthy tones, surfaces and shapes create a comfortable, organic and welcoming environment that beautifully blends into the surrounding desert. It creates a relaxed ambience that is at once both extremely rustic and unquestionably luxurious.

PURE COMFORT AND TRANQUILITY

Beautifully designed Casitas and One-Bedroom Suites feature contemporary Santa Fe style interiors that capture and celebrate the essence of this magical location. These elegant spaces perfectly balance modern and traditional Santa Fe design, with open floor plans, beautifully appointed décor, original art and private outdoor patios offering spectacular vistas. Polished concrete floors, kiva-style wood-burning fireplaces and vaulted ceilings create an oasis of comfort for you to enjoy.

EXPLORING SANTA FE

Santa Fe is most famous for its scenic beauty, historic sites and American Indian culture, but there are also other diversions to enjoy. Golfing, river rafting, horseback riding, hot-air ballooning, fly-fishing and hiking can be found close by. Other activities include exploring downtown Santa Fe, known for its Native American jewelry and artifacts, Southwestern cuisine and art galleries. During the winter season snowboarders and skiers will find a mountainous winter wonderland just 16 miles from the heart of Santa Fe.

A TREASURE OF CULTURAL DIVERSITY

The rich cultural heritage of Santa Fe is one of the most popular reasons people visit this unique city. The Santa Fe Opera has enjoyed a devoted following ever since it opened its doors in 1957, and regularly features famous singers and directors from around the world. There are also more than 250 art galleries to explore, with works ranging from indigenous Native American art to contemporary exhibitions. Other cultural activities and sites include the Santa Fe Film Festival and the St. Francis Cathedral.

You'll enjoy the absolute essence of your destination, discover the healing power of seeking pleasure, and discover a staff committed to delivering every service and amenity with an unrivalled sense of passion. It's a unique sense of luxury and sophistication, refined, yet always relaxed. We are also committed to the concept of "responsible luxury," striving to make positive contributions to both the surrounding environment and communities wherever our resorts are located.
